DETAILED ACTION

1. Receipt is acknowledged of amendments filed on 3/31/2006.
2. Claims 1-22 are presented for examination.

Priority

3. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-22 are allowed.
5. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record, taken alone or in combination with any other references, fails to teach an application program that is set based on the ID input from the object-identifying unit, compares an application program that is set based on the newly-input IID with an application program that is set based on the already-input ID from the object-identifying unit, and ends the currently-executed application program when the two application programs are different from each other. These limitations in conjunction with other limitations in the claimed invention were not shown by the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Art Unit: 2876

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Alloing et al. (US 2003/0110472) discloses method and system for generating program source code of a computer application from an information model.
